

Dr. med. Gunnar Urban

Medical specialist in internal medicine, infectious diseases

since July 2021	Employed specialist at MVZ Infektiologie Ärzteforum Seestrassen
2015 – 2021	Berlin Justice Hospital, Focus on infectiology, since 2018 as senior physician
2014	Consultant Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ), Ghana Training and preventive work on Ebola
2012 – 2014	Transplantation coordinator German Foundation for Organ Transplantation, Berlin Coordination of multi-organ donations and control of transmission of infectious diseases
2011 – 2012	Public Health Department Berlin Hygiene and Environmental Medicine
2008 – 2010	German Development Service (DED), Tanzania Development worker in the field of HIV/AIDS
2001 – 2008	Medical and Infectious Diseases Clinic, Sweden
1997 - 2000	Karlsburg Hospital and Greifswald University Hospital Transfusion medicine, immunology, pathophysiology
1994 – 1996	Neukölln Hospital Autoptic quality control
1993 – 1994	Jewish Hospital, Acute geriatrics
1992 – 1993	Internship doctor, State Institute for Tropical Medicine, Berlin

Medical studies

Free University of Berlin

Main areas of treatment

Infectiology, HIV/AIDS, STI, general practitioner care

Memberships in professional societies

German Society for Infectiology (DGI), AK AIDS

Additional Qualifications

Additional qualifications: Infectiology (DGI, Berlin Medical Association, Sweden), Transplant Coordinator, Addiction Medicine

Scientific activity

Various publications, posters, lectures